

GAGAKU

bo diddley
ramming home his man

birds diving into pacific pelicans straight down
that long beak
has eyes

angels up there
diving down
like birds
into this sea

angels
birds
the same
the cat
looking at me an angel too
if things improve
too much
it'll be time

it'll be time
for the inevitable
sign
white cardboard

carried by black frocked figures hooded
blue letters on sign
blue script
radiant blue paint or ink

the message printed
says something
I can't make out

it doesn't matter
I never wanted the
answer

was content with the question

GAGAKU

so many poems
so much advice
